

Summer Structure:

A Paragraph Writing Workshop

Does your child...

- know what they want to say but can't get it on paper?
- get overwhelmed writing more than one sentence?
- start writing without a plan?

WHO: Rising 4th and 5th graders

WHEN: Workshop is 2-weeks,
10:00am-12:00pm, Monday-Friday

Session 1: 6/14-6/25

Session 2: 7/12- 7/23

Session 3: 7/26- 8/6

Session 4: 8/9-8/20

Session 5: 8/23-9/3

WHERE:

Outdoors in Windsor Terrace, Brooklyn

Covid safety protocols will be followed.

TUITION: $1,200

CONTACT: Beth Bucher
see information below

Students will:

- ✓ Learn concrete strategies to effectively plan, structure and revise their written work
- ✓ Sharpen their elaboration skills
- ✓ Increase their confidence and competence when asked to write about what they read
- ✓ Create a digital resource folder with tools to support their writing throughout the school year
- ✓ Receive individualized instruction in a small group setting (maximum 4 students)
- ✓ Work with an expert writing tutor and veteran educator whose infectious energy makes even the most reluctant student find joy in learning

Beth Bucher, M.Ed. is a dynamic learning specialist who has spent 21 years helping a broad range of learners find success. With an easy rapport and incomparable skills, Beth changes attitudes, not just grades. Beth has worked as an educator and administrator in public and private school settings, and as an adjunct instructor at Bank Street College. References available upon request.